

The Ed Parker Accredited Advisor in Insurance (AAI) Scholarship

Sponsored by IAG's Young Agents Committee (YAC)

The Young Agents Committee of Georgia (YAC) has created a scholarship for one lucky Young Agent (under 40 years of age) to obtain the Accredited Advisor in Insurance (AAI) designation. If you are looking to obtain a professional designation and want to separate yourself from the competition, AAI is your answer!

The AAI program is broken down into three separate sections that are taught through the Independent Insurance Agents of Georgia, usually in April, July and October of each year. (Check the AAI Schedule on www.iiag.org). Classes do not need to be taken in order, so you may mix and match as you choose. The curriculum is very comprehensive and will give you the knowledge you need to succeed! For more information about the AAI designation, please click on the following link: AAI Info.

With a value of over $1500, this scholarship is a great opportunity to save money while furthering your professional development, so apply today! Applications will be accepted through February 14, 2020. The winner will be notified February 20th at the 2020 YAC Sales & Leadership Conference (need not be present to win), must register through IAG for the sessions, and will have two years to attend all required sessions of the program.
